To the Editor:

Under "Washington Whispers" in the March 23, 1964 issue of the U.S. News & World Report magazine is the following report:

"Russia's Khrushchev, it now turns out, bought just enough wheat from the United States to scuttle the U.S. economic blockade of Cuba, but not enough to give any noticeable help in lowering the surplus supply in the U.S. or to help its balance of payments. Then he shut off orders. One official said: "He made U.S. look like a fool *." How much longer are the American voters going to keep on electing fools who appoint fools who put their country in a position to be called "a fool?" ROGER M. COFFIN

How much more could your salesmen sell if you unchained them from their cars?

Braniff business schedules can often double effective selling time)

If one of your salesmen drove -- let's say from Oklahoma City to San Antonio, he'd only be about 150 miles down the road when the Braniff flight he might have taken touches down at San Antonio. The cost? About the same or a little less than driving his car. Your Braniff office has the details. And we'll point out to you that he will have more effective time for sales calls in San Antonio and less time away from home. See? you're a hero to his wife already.

Your Merc dealer invites you to compare the fuel economy of a Merc with any competitor's outboard of similar horsepower

Fuel economy is engineered into every Mercury outboard. The small-bore, short-stroke design is one of the reasons we can do it.

The small cylinders in a Merc are more efficient in converting fuel into useful energy than the big cylinders found in other outboards. Harmful pre-ignition is minimized be-cause the combustion is more easily controlled in the small cylinders. Not so in "bigbore" outboards. Merc's Power-Dome combustion chambers boost the power and further reduce fuel Mercs tolerate a greater degree of spark advance which is necessary for maximum fuel efficiency at cruising speeds. This makes Merc's fuel economy linkage more effective than those on competitors' "big-bore" out-boards. Merc's fixed-jet carburetors and balanced intake manifold improve fuel economy even more by metering out the exact amount of fue an engine needs at any speed.

Mercury's lower unit design and Jet-Prop exhaust reduce underwater drag...giving you more efficient power at the prop. You get maximum mileage from every drop of fuel that you use.

Mercs will consistently give you more miles per gallon and more miles per hour than competitors' outboards. Your Merc dealer likes to compare Merc's economy with other outboards. See him soon. See how you can get more RUN for your money with Mercury . . . 100, 85, 65, 50, 35, 20, 9.8, 6 and 3.9 hp outboards and MerCruiser Stern Drives... 110 to 310 hp gasoline; 60 and 100 hp diesel.
